Dear Uncle,

This is just a few lines to let you know that I sent you £3.0.0 to-day. As stated in my last letter, I am heavily taxed here now. This is the month I pay the second part of my tax, the first being paid in January. As a result, it has not been possible to send you more than £3.0.0. I hope it will help you. Later, I shall send another sum. This together with what the Church pays you, should enable you to buy the things you want.

Please, write and tell me how things are at home. Mr. Hanock told me that the elction at Lilongwe was gainst Chief Mwase, because many school boys wer allowed to vote. I hope this will not be final. I sincerely hope Chief Mwase will be elected Karonga. Tell him this is my wish and if I can do anything about it at all, I shall do it to help him elected.

I had a very nice letter from the A. D. C. at Kasungu. He seems to be a very nice man from what he writes in the letter. We are very lucky in having a very good D. C. or A. D. C. Our people should help him. In this way, his fork at Kasungu will be much easier.

I know you will do your best to help our chief and also, the A. D. C., who is a good man.

By giving both Chief Mwase and the A. D. C. good advice about the country, you will be doing a very good work for your people and your country. I only wish I were halpxx there to help. But never mind, Uncle. Some day, I shall be back home. Then I shall be able to help our people, our chief and the D. C. or the A. D. C.

This is just a short letter. I wanted you to know that I have sent you the sum of £3.0.0. Please, let me know when you receive it a and tell me all about what happened at Lilongwe.

With kindest regards.

Yours sincerely,

and i Du
