Lusaka, Zambia

Dear Mr. Liboma,

Congratulations and welcome to Lincoln University. You have been selected for admission to Lincoln University for the Fall semester beginning August 20, 2000, as an Economics major. Lincoln University stands ready to provide you with an education of the highest possible quality that will prepare you for success in a world of rapid change.

To confirm this offer of admission, we are requesting that you forward to Lincoln University a deposit of $13,530.00 to cover your expenses for one full academic year. This deposit is due by May 1, 2000 to confirm your place in the class. It includes tuition, room and board, and other general fees. Tuition, room and board, and fees may be increased prior to your arrival and you may be required to make an additional deposit for the fall semester. Information on sending the deposit is enclosed along with other pertinent instructions. We advise you to make appropriate plans for continuing to be responsible for payment of your fees during your years of enrollment here at Lincoln University.

In order to be considered for campus housing you must send your deposit along with the completed Student Conduct application enclosed. For additional information you may contact the Office of Residence Life at (610) 932-8300 ext. 3254.

If you have met our requirements for the Freshmen Year Merit Academic Scholarships you must complete the enclosed Foreign Student Financial Aid Application.

We have also enclosed a Medical History Report form which your personal physician must complete and return to the Health Services Center at Lincoln University. International students must submit this form to MSC 135, Lincoln University, Health Services Center, P. O. Box 179, Lincoln University, PA 19352.

We look forward to seeing you in the fall as you begin one of the most important journeys of your life at the nation's oldest historically black university. If you have any questions or concerns please feel free to contact me at 1-800-790-0191.

Sincerely,
