Dr. Mr. Brewers - Please note my change of address to this number etc. I oblige

I would also thank you for a Catalogue, I almost wish I had not sent my last communication, but waited until I had something new to show. But it has so generally satisfied me to get things done I do not get on to the further steps before beginning something else. I have just finished a Sonnet to Dante, to whose memory of instead deducing my poem freely. I have a few touches to add to the latter. With the new arrangement does the time publish anything of the kind?

I have not time for a letter now.
Yours truly, W. D. Howells.
