My dear Sir

Your note of the 13th, though received at the Phila. P.O. in due time, was for some cause not delivered to me till today. This I hope will account for my not acknowledging it earlier.

Please accept my hearty thanks for the high honour accorded to me by the University of Indiana in numbering me amongst its honorary alumni. I should be glad to feel that I had done something to merit such a distinction.

It may be that, as a teacher, I have helped some hundreds of young men to do good work in the world, and to gain in time places of honour, but I never thought of claiming such 'eminence' for myself, as you in your kindness ascribe to me

With much regard
I remain

Very truly yours
Francis A. Jackson
