My Dear Sir ✓✓

Judge A. L. Roache of this City, now, as formerly, one of the Trustees of the Ind University, is as you know one of the early graduates of that institution. He became early in life quite Eminent as a lawyer, and was a judge of this Court for a time now nearly thirty years ago - I happened to learn incidentally to day that the University has never conferred any degree upon him since his graduation - It is usually the pride of all institutions to take care of their own, and I was impressed with the idea that it would be a handsome thing for the University to Con-for the degree of L. L. D. upon him.

I write this at my own suggestion purely and without the knowledge of any one else. I trust you will at all events pardon the liberty I have taken in making the suggestion I have.

Very respectfully

Dr Samuel May
