My Dear Dr. Mose

I want to recommend to you my friend Mr John Albee.

His lectures are delightful and instructive. I am sure you could not do a better thing than to secure from him a course for the University.

I am sure that you, your students and the citizens of Bloomington would thank me for writing this letter, if it should result in giving you the benefit of a course from Mr. Albee.

I think that you can make your own terme with him, providing you let him select the time. This notion did not proceed from him, but comes from me. I happened to meet him in New York last week and told him that I was going to fight to get him to Bloomington.

I want if possible to arrange a circuit, consisting of Crawfords-ville, Terre Haute and Bloomington.

I want to say confidentially, that I place a higher value upon his lecture than upon those of Harris or Alcott.

Dear Mr. Smoot,

I enclose two tickets with subjects; being in print I thought it would be easier to see at a glance; the same one character are obvious.

Looking the two lectures on Faded Metaphors = Evolution of Fig. Long., together with those on Eng. Long., there might be a course of six.
Keltie, Anglon

Saxon and Norman would make another of six, on the development of our Literature.
Chaucer and Spenser belong naturally to the latter course, and could be given if desired.
I think out of the whole number a course of such length as might be required could be arranged on either of two topics:— Language, and Literature.

With many thanks for your suggestion and proffered aid, I am

Very sincerely Yrs

John Allen.
