

GEOLOGICAL SURVEY OF ARKANSAS.

JOHN C. BRANNER, STATE GEOLOGIST.

CLARENCE R. CLAGHORN,
ASSISTANT GEOLOGIST IN CHARGE OF
COAL REGIONS.

R. A. F. PENROSE, JR.,
ASSISTANT GEOLOGIST IN CHARGE OF
IRON AND MANGANESE.

R. N. BRACKETT,
CHEMIST.

LITTLE ROCK, ARK. May 6th., 1891. 189

Dr. D. S. Jordan,
President.

Dear sir:-

At the next meeting of the Board of Trustees of the University of Indiana please present to them my resignation of the Chair of Geology in that institution.

I beg at the same time to thank the Board, individually and collectively, for their unvarying kindness during the time I have been connected with the University.

Very truly yours,

John C. Branner

Dr. D. S. Jordan

CLARENCE R. CLAGHORN,
ASSISTANT GEOLOGIST IN CHARGE OF
COAL REGIONS.

R. A. F. FENROBE, JR.,
ASSISTANT GEOLOGIST IN CHARGE OF
IRON AND MANGANESE.

R. N. BRACKETT,
CHEMIST.

GEOLOGICAL SURVEY OF ARKANSAS.

JOHN C. BRANNER, STATE GEOLOGIST.

LITTLE ROCK, ARK.

MAY 6TH., 1891.

Dr. D. S. Jordan,
President.

Dear Sir:-

At the next meeting of the Board of Trustees of the University of Arkansas, Little Rock, Ark.

I beg at the same time to thank the Board for its kind and friendly letter of the 1st inst. during the time I have been connected with the University.

Very truly yours,

John C. Branner