

ISAAC JENKINSON,

PROPRIETOR OF THE

DAILY AND WEEKLY PALLADIUM

—AND—

BOOK AND JOB PRINTER,

831 AND 833 MAIN STREET.

*From
Mr. Jenkinson,*

Richmond, Ind., March 22. 1890

David S. Jordan

Pres. of Indiana University

My Dear Sir: Yours in regard to Prof. Sounders's salary, and also your statement of the condition of the Preparatory department received.

I think the record must be defective in regard to Prof. S.'s salary. My recollection is that your recommendation both as to continuing the professor and increase of his salary was approved by the board. I so understood it at the time.
I do not believe there will be any trouble on that point, and I think you ^{will} be safe in saying so to him.

We have a standing committee on the Preparatory department, and the
