

Latin

Indiana University, Bloomington, Ind. Nov. 8-1885.

To the Hon. Board of Trustees
Indiana University,

Gentlemen,

I hereby submit my report of the Condition and work of the Department of Latin.

The Freshman Class is divided into four sections, three regular and one irregular. Of the three regular sections, one recites to me daily

Its enrollment is twenty four (24).
The other two regular sections recite to Prof.
Philpott. The enrollment of the one is twenty six (26), that of the other seventeen (17). Both of his sections come to me one day in the week. Prof. Philpott has also an irregular or Sub-Freshman Class bringing up Preparatory work. This class numbers thirty one (31).

The Sophomore Class has ten members. It is reading Horace Studying Prosody and practicing metrical reading. It recites to me four days in the week, to Prof. Philpott one day.

The Juniors and Seniors make up a class of five (5). There are two (2) Seniors and three (3) Juniors. They are reading Roman Law as found in the Institutes of Justinian.

Our total enrollment therefore, in the department of Latin is as follows: Regular Freshmen sixty five (65), Irregular Freshmen thirty one (31), making a total of ninety six Freshmen; Sophomores ten (10), Juniors three (3), Seniors two (2), making a total of one hundred and eleven (111) in all, enrolled in the department of Latin.

I regret to learn of the intention of Prof Philpott to retire from the University and seek another field of labor, at the end of the present Calendar year.

He has been a very satisfactory Assistant and Associate in the work of instruction. Another man will be needed to take his place. The President has the names of several persons who have been favorably recommended. If no one of these is available or satisfactory, we can certainly find a suitable man among our alumni.

Respectfully Submitted
Anzi Mivator
Prof. of Latin

Prof. Atwater

1888

✓