

PROFESSOR N. R. HANSON'S LETTER TO THE EDITOR OF "THE NATION":

"Dear Sir:

Since writing "Hoosier Witch Hunt" (The Nation, May 25th) I have learned that more was going on at I. U. in defense of YSA's civil rights than I knew at the time. Professor Ralph Fuch's letter to you was in large measure justified and I am pleased to acknowledge this. Moreover, my article hurt and embarrassed friends and colleagues at Indiana University - an effect not at all envisaged when I undertook to speak out against the Bloomington Prosecutor's idea of 'the American way'. For this I wish to apologize publicly. Strength and good luck to my former associates in their resolve to keep academic freedom high on the list of I.U.'s many virtues.

Yours, etc.,

Norwood Russell Hanson"
