Vice President Bernie Minkow called the Indiana University Student Senate to order at 7:20 in the Bryan Room. Senators Cast, Dabagia, Flynn, Hartnett, Hersh, Hornak, Rice, Roberts, Shankland, and Strickland were absent. The minutes of the last two meetings were approved.

EXECUTIVE BUSINESS

Vice President Minkow read the results of the senatorial elections. The following candidates were elected:

Mary A. Burton	Smithwood III and IV
Carol Stowe	Women's Quad
Leslie Bradshaw	Town Men
Neil Diver	Jorden Men
Pat Sanders	Men's Quad, Units 1-9
William Meade	Married Students
Sherry Lackey	Third Street Women
Gene Robbins	Men's Residence Center
Bill Vittito	Northwest Organized Men

A letter of resignation from Ann Morrison was accepted by the Senate.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Senator Black's formal report on the Senate training program was accepted. Three meetings were held to instruct the three new senators in student government. Senate advisor Lou Stamatakow explained the role of the Student Senate in student government, President Ed Whalen explained the separation of the branches of student government, and Vice President Minkow and Senator Black discussed the various duties of every senator. ~~Senator Kassing read a formal report from the Human Rights Committee. His committee is now formulating a recommendation that the Board of Trustees take action to eliminate discriminatory clauses from the Constitutions of campus housing units. The report was accepted.~~

Senator Fry's final report from the special committee to establish a student tax was adopted. The conclusion was that IU students will continue to contribute voluntarily to their respective class treasuries.

OLD BUSINESS

Senator Kassing's question on the reason for the Board of Trustees' refusal to grant the class tax was answered by Senator Fry, who explained that granting any special assessment for any campus organization is against the Board's policy.

NEW BUSINESS

Senator Kassing moved to subpoena the Attorney General to appear before the Senate. The motion was carried.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Laura Jean Passow, special assistant in charge of personnel, explained the different uses of the newly created "roving" subcommittee. Her committee is responsible for keeping information files on each of the 175 student government personnel workers. There will be four mass meetings this year.

Senate advisor Lou Stamatakos spoke on the NSA Harvard Seminar which will be held for six weeks this summer. Any student in an NSA organization may apply, and ten will be selected to attend. Applications may be obtained from Bernie Minkow.

Senator Fry moved to adjourn. A moment of silent prayer followed, and the meeting was adjourned at 8:15.

Respectfully submitted
Sandie Smith, Clerk
