

Louisville 28th July 1836

Rev. A. Maylie

Dear Sir,

Some Merchant in Bloomington has levied an attachment on a tract of land I hold near your town for a debt contracted as he alleges by my son Godfrey - this he did without ever informing me of the existence of the demand - nor did I know at this time what it was for - a man who lives with me was over last fall and offered to pay him provided he would withdraw the suit and pay the cost - this he refused to do - If he will do it you may draw on me for the amt. which will be paid at one days sight at my bank in Louisville - If the man will not do it I ask that you will employ some competent atty to attend to the case for me and defend it - and if Judgment is rendered against me draw for the amt. If your son who was studying law is this employ him - it is a small but vexatious affair for the amt. of demand or costs I care nothing but establish that a child of 16 can bind the parent to any extent. and few would trust their sons at college - I presumed it was known that you acted as his Guardian or Chastrian if as I wish you summoned - I paid all his bills that were presented - not that I was bound to do it but I could do it without feeling it - an atty was named to me to whom I intended to write but I understand he has been appointed a Judge If necessary to pay the amt. then Mr. How or Mr. John Owens who knows me well I have no doubt pay it for me - Please let me hear from you in answer Respectfully yr friend

Wm. Prosser

A man may be injured 1 in his person 2 property 3 reputation 4 Affections & Belief 5 Morals or virtue

J. A. Wylie A.M.

A. W. Ruter A.M.

Jas H. Dadds

Jas H. Dadds

Jas H. Dadds A.M.

Andrew Wylie C.D.

J. A. Wylie A.M.

B. Parker A.M.

A. W. Ruter A.M.

Jas H. Dadds

J. A.

Elder
 Clement Bloomington
 Lanier Bloomington
 Cookery Bloomington
 West Bloomington
 Brown Edwin

Wilson C. A. Wylie

Allison A. W. Ruter

Beatty Jas H. Dadds

Sevenson Jas H. Dadds

Wright Jas H. Dadds

Smith

Henderson

Brown Ephraim

Rolling Lane

Doc 13
 20 Lewis