On the evening of Dec. 31st 1858, I saw Rev. W^m M. Daily staggering along Washington street under the influence of intoxicating liquor - drunk without doubt. I have been acquainted with him for ~~over~~^{near} twenty five years; so I am not mistaken in the man.

I was standing in the door of John Wood's hardware store at the time I saw him, and W. Wood, Thos. Smith and myself (all of us were watching him) came to the conclusion that he was drunk - so much so that he staggered. There is no question but that he was drunk.

Signed Ellis W. Brown.

On the afternoon of Dec 31. while W. Leon Morris and myself were passing along Washington street, we met Rev. W^m M. Daily, who we noticed were under the influence of intoxicating liquor, as we thought; he acting very much as all men do when under its influence. Signed - M. S. Orr
