

Resolved, that Prof. Woodburn's resignation be accepted, and that the thanks of the Faculty be presented him for his fidelity in discharging the duties of his office.

On motion, Prof. Kirkwood was appointed to fill the vacancy.

Faculty adjourned.

Daniel Kirkwood, Secretary.

Friday, 3 P. M., March 2nd, 1860.

Faculty met. Prof. Hibben absent. The rolls were examined, and the absences recorded.

Adjourned.

Daniel Kirkwood Sec.

Friday Morning, March 9th, 1860.

Faculty met and attended to the ordinary business. D.K.

Friday, 3 P. M., March 16th, 1860.

Faculty met. All the members present. The rolls were compared, after which the following order of examinations was adopted:

Monday, from 8 to 12, Profs. Hibben & Woodburn

Tuesday, " " " Wylie, Woodburn, & Kirkwood

Wedn., " " " Dr. Lathrop, & Profs. Ballantine and Kirkwood.

Thursday, " " Prof. Ballantine.

The secretary was instructed to invite the clergy and other literary gentlemen of the town to attend the examinations. Adjourned.

Daniel Kirkwood
Secretary.