

examined on the 15th of October, for admission to the Freshman class.

Prof. Kirkwood, was, on motion, appointed a committee to examine Mr. Charles for admission to the Freshman class.

Adjourned.

Daniel Kirkwood, Secretary

Monday, October 1, 1860.

The Faculty met. Profs. Ballantine and Hibben absent.

Prayer by Prof. Wylie.

Mr. DuFour was permitted to take his studies wholly in the Preparatory Department. Dr. Nutt & Prof. Wylie were appointed a committee to attend to the procuring of Periodicals for the University. Adjourned.

D. Kirkwood, Sec.

Oct. 2, 1860.

Faculty met. Prof. Hibben absent on account of sickness in his family. Prayer by Prof. Woodburn.

Prof. Kirkwood reported that he had examined D. Charles, and moved that he be admitted to the Scientific Freshman Class. Mr. C. was accordingly received.

The following resolutions were also adopted:

Resolved, that James H. Knight, ^{who} was re-examined at a former meeting, be now regularly admitted to the Junior Class.

Resolved, that Mr. James B. Black, of the Junior class, be appointed tutor for the current term, and that his compensation be twenty-five dollars.