

Thursday, March 28th, 1861.

The Faculty met. All the members present. Prayer by Dr. Nutt.

On motion, the Rev. Wm. T. Moffet, of the class of 1858, was elected to deliver the Master's oration on next Commencement day, June 28th.

Adjourned.

S. Kirkwood, Sec.

Friday, March 29th, 1861.

The Faculty met — all the members present. Prayer by Prof. Ballantine.

On motion,

Resolved that the unexcused absence of students ought to affect their standing as to deportment.

Resolved, that the present junior class be excused from the further study of the Calculus.

Adjourned

S. Kirkwood, Sec.

Tuesday, April 16th, 1861

The Faculty met — all the members present, except Prof. Hibben, who was excused.

Messrs. Poindexter, Gray, M. L. Prother, Emison and Woodsmall, who were absent at the close of the last term, appeared and were examined.

The Rev. Mr. Moffet having declined to deliver the Master's oration on the next Commencement day, Prof. S. J. Kahler was appointed in his place.

Adjourned.

S. Kirkwood Sec.