Advanced
Degrees

After considerable discussion the following report of the Committee on Advanced Degrees was adopted:-

Graduate School.

Graduate School

The committee on advanced degrees recommend to the President and Board of Trustees the establishment of a graduate school, the work to be under the control of committee consisting of the head of the department in which the student does his major work and the heads of all other departments in which he may do work.

Contributions

To further recognize the work of the graduate school it is recommended I. That there be published in the Bulletin a list of the contributions issued ~~each~~ during each year from the various departments.

Assistants
not paid

II That Scholars be appointed from among the seniors or graduate students in any department who shall act as assistants a definite number of hours per week without pay and may receive credit for the same number of hours toward graduation, and whose names shall appear in the catalogue.

III. That paid assistants be appointed by the President on the recommendation of the head of the department concerned. Any one may be eligible for reappointment for a total of not more than three years, but the appointment does not imply a reappointment. At least half of the time of an assistant must be given to research.

Publishing salary of assistants

IV. That if deemed advisable, the number and salary of the assistants be published in connection with the announcement of the graduate school.

Degrees.

The degree of Master

DEGREES

The degree of Master of Arts may be conferred upon graduates of this University, or of any other institution of the same standing, upon the completion in residence of fifteen hours per term, carried during at least one entire college year. Thirty of the total of forty-five hours must be in one Department, or in closely allied Departments. Fifteen hours must be distinctly graduate in character.

Master of Arts

The Master's degree may be conferred upon graduates of this University upon the completion in absence of fifteen hours per term, or their equivalent, carried during at least two full years under the direction of the Faculty, hours of private work done in absence being estimated at one-half the credit value of work done at the University.

Professional studies are not accepted for this degree, but research work on professional subjects may be accepted at the option of the professor in charge of the major subject.

A thesis may be required at the option of the professor in charge of the major subject.

The degree of Doctor of Philosophy may be conferred upon graduates of this University, or of any institution of similar character and rank, upon the completion of an advanced course of study of not less than three years. In exceptional cases, on the recommendation of the professor in charge of the major subject and with the concurrence of the Committee on Advanced Degrees, part of this time may be spent in study at other universities.

Doctor of Philosophy

The course of study for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy must be pursued under the direction of a committee consisting of the heads of the Departments in which the work is done, and its value shall be determined by a final examination and by the presentation of a satisfactory thesis embodying original work upon some prescribed or accepted subject. In each case a detailed statement, which must be endorsed by the professor in charge of the major work, must be submitted to the Committee on Advanced Degrees not later than May 10 of the year in which the candidate presents himself for examination.

The thesis of every candidate for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy must be presented to the Committee on Advanced Degrees on or before the first day of June of the year in which he proposes to take the degree. The thesis must be endorsed by the head of the Department as being in its final form and ready for the press. Examinations of each candidate for this degree will be conducted before a committee consisting of all the instructors under whom graduate work has been taken. If the candidate is recommended for the degree, five printed copies of the thesis shall be deposited in the library before the degree is conferred.

Formal application for the degree of Master of Arts must be filed with the Dean at least three months before the time when the degree is to be given. Formal application for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy must be on file at least one year before the candidate is admitted to the examination.

Upon motion it was voted that no work be recognized as graduate until all the work for the A. B. degree is completed. Upon motion of Dean Hoffman the absence of the members of the Glee Club at the beginning of the Winter Term was excused.

The Faculty meeting adjourned at 8:55 P.M.
