

GENERAL FACULTY MEETING

Indiana University

September 27, 1960

The Faculty of the University met in the Whittenberger Auditorium at 8:00 p.m., September 27, 1960. President Wells welcomed the beginning of the new academic year with enthusiasm and confidence.

President Wells, with the assistance of the administrative officers, deans and chairmen, introduced the new members of the administrative staff and faculty.

In accordance with the provisions for amendment set forth in the Constitution, President Wells identified the proposed changes in Articles VI and VII of the Constitution as an amendment to be presented for discussion at a later meeting of the Faculty.

The meeting then adjourned for social enjoyment in the quarters of the University Club.

Norman T. Pratt, Jr.
Secretary