

Opportunity

for the Constructive Critic

THE VAGABOND desires thoughtful articles of any sort, but particularly those on subjects connected with Indiana University. In order to stimulate such contributions, we are offering a prize of five dollars for the best paper on the subject: What's Right With Indiana. The prize-winning essay will be printed in the next issue, unless the committee feels that its quality does not warrant publication. Entries must be submitted by April 15, and may be dropped into THE VAGABOND boxes on the campus or mailed to THE VAGABOND, Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana.
