

Indiana University

Feb. 23, 1925.

Roll called.

Minutes read and approved.

Pres. Fillion stated that the University had taken care of the drop-lights and if there is any added expense it will be very small.

Mr. Lahr reported that there had been a great deal of material sent for the Jordan River Review - so much in fact that there has been difficulty in sorting out the applicants. ~~It has~~ The date for the Review has not been set so far - it is either give the Review before mid-terms or wait until after April 27.

Mr. Diggins gave the following report about the Union Dance of last Saturday evening at the Student Building:

$75.00 Orchestra	$80.75 Dance receipts.
1.25 Taxi	4.50 Club room
3.80 Janitor	$85.25 Total receipts.
2.50 Advertising
$82.55 Total expense

This dance showed a profit of $2.70

Mr. Hunnicutt submitted a few old bills to the board. The Board moved and passed that these bills be paid.

The Board conducted an informal discussion on the question of playing the Indiana-Purdue Game at Indianapolis instead of at Purdue. If this game is to be played the Union will take care of securing a special trailer to Indianapolis and return. Pres. Fillion appointed Hillis and Gibson to take care of these special arrangements.

Meeting adjourned.

Joseph C. Headley
Secy.