

February 15, 1927

Roll Call found Tuttle absent with Benzyl excused.

Minutes read and approved.

The pool room made $23⁰⁰ week of Feb. 7th, according to treasurer's report. No financial statement on dance was available.

Mr. Cochran announced that the next dance would be Feb. 26 - the 25th dance with Oliver's band playing. Cochran stated that Mark Hindley's Bandoliers were seeking a Union dance but that they had not been booked. Cochran was asked to have signs made to advertise the "Two-bit" dance.

Mr. White reported that only 30 men were entered in the pool tourney and asked for advertisement to "pep it up".

Mr. Newton announced that the Michigan game would not be broadcast. At all possible he was to see about having the game received by wire.

Harry Champ was selected as new member of Union Board to take place of Henry Claywell.

Meeting adjourned.
