

May 6, 1930

Roll call. Minutes of previous meeting read and approved.

Treas. Report:

$ 388.59 - on checking account.
 $ 800.00 - certificate of deposit
 $ 121.00 - in Bond Fund.
 $ 1044.40 - Free Fund
$ 2353.99 - Total

The outgoing treasurer declared that a more definite or detailed report could not then be obtained, owing to the division of Union funds among several different accounts. All bills were reported paid except a bill of 70¢ from Book Store and a bill owing from Cafeteria for the inaugural banquet.

(1) Bills from Checker cab - Dec. 7, 1929 - .50¢
 (2) " " " " - Feb. 15, 1929 - .50¢
 (3) " " Variety Pharam. - for candy - 1.18
2.18

The three bills above noted were discussed; motion to pay them was carried.

Officers for the ensuing year then were installed and the outgoing board adjourned.

Disposal of Steele paintings owned by Union was discussed; decision was postponed pending further deliberation.

It was decided that no more Union dances be given during remainder of semester.

Meeting adjourned at 8:20 p.m.

[Signature]

Sec'y.

Adscript: The outgoing president suggested that the 1930-31 Board remedy the ~~defect~~ ^{weakness} inadequacy of the Union Constitution provisions relating to election of the board; this defect revealed itself at the election held for election of the present Board.

[Signature]