

Dec. 2, 1930

Roll call, minutes read and approved. Absentees -
Sharpe.

Treasurer reported a net profit of $9.75 from the Pool Room for the past two weeks. All bills paid up.

Moved and seconded that the Union pay $6 membership fee to the Bloomington Chamber of Commerce. Passed.

Moved, seconded and passed that the Union send a representative ^{to} the National Union Convention at Brown University, Providence R.I. Paul Rabe was sent as delegate.

The granting of power of attorney to the Melrose Bros. of Chicago, in regard to issuing licenses for the use of the song "Indiana" was taken under advisement.

Dull reported that three of the Steele paintings needed framing and Prof. Burke designated a place to send them for this. It was decided to request Mr. Char. Hays to send them to the proper place for such action. Also decided that plates were to be placed on the pictures stating that these pictures were ~~the~~ ^a gift to the Indiana Union by J.C. Steele.

Moved, seconded and passed that the Union give a dance Fri. night Dec. 12 and to have Cap Sheyard's band.

There being no further business to come before the board adjournment was moved, seconded, and passed.
Adjournment 7:40

James M. Tucker
Secy.