

Apr. 21, 1931

Roll call, minutes read and approved.

Absentees, Peabworth, Cook, ~~Forster~~, Pope.

Treasurer reports the pool room receipts for the week ending April 21 to be $44.75, William's sweater received and cost $10. The following stock paintings are insured for fire at $3000 with the American Central Insurance Co - E. B. Woodward agent; and for loss other than fire for $2,900 with N. S. Fidelity & Guaranty.

1. Strength of the Hills.
2. When Skies are Blue.
3. Racing Hays in Schooner Valley.
4. The Sentinel Tree.
5. The Rising Mist - Bear Wallon.
6. An Opalescent Morning.
7. Winter Day in the Ravine.

The premiums on these are paid $\frac{1}{2}$ by the Union and premium for full coverage is \$25.50 yearly.

Those insured in full by the Union are:

1. Jordan River No. 1.
2. Jordan River No. 2.
3. The Library Building.

These are insured for full coverage for $1500 with Automobile Ins. Co., J. M. Sappenfield agent. The premium $18.75 yearly.

Moved, seconded, passed that bill of $110 for engraving life memberships be paid.

Murphy reports that he has engaged room in the cafeteria for the installation begun May 5.

An motion

Adjournment 7:25

James L. Tucker
Secy.