

October 26, 1933

Roll Call: Prof. Robinson, Judge Batman, and George Heighway were absent.

Minutes were read and approved.

The president read a letter from the Purdue Union in which they encouraged the Indiana Union to enter a band in the big Ten band contest. A more recent letter from the above place was given in which they signified that the contest will be held at the same place this year. It was the desire of the Board that Slim Lamar's be entered representing the Indiana Union if he so desired.

A report of the Melrose Bros Music Publishing Co was given in which $13.99 was yet due to the company from the Union. Said amount was to be deduced from the royalties due to the Union as they accrue.

The weekly financial report along with bills for the week were presented.

Moved and seconded that report be accepted as read, carried.

Fineberg gave a report on the grid graph ticket sales of a loss of $5.75. Moved and seconded that report be accepted as read.

A short discussion was had on the advantages and disadvantages of having a lower price for the grid graph. Mr. Biddle said that he would see that all the local papers would carry some publicity concerning the grid-graph. Moved and seconded that the price of the grid graph for the next game be 15¢ straight, carried.

The possibility of a purchase of an amplifying system was discussed in which it was brought out the great need for same in the Union Building. It was the desire of the Board that several companies be invited to bring some sets down for trial. Biddinger was appointed to report on trial of the one used at the Sigma Chi Banquet.

Dean Merrill and Frank Elliot presented to the Board some new plans for increasing the ticket sale of the Music Series. Mr. Elliot stated that there would be several more signs completed and same should be placed in all class rooms. Also a letter (form) will be sent to all unorganized students. Fletchall announced that girls from various sororities would go to different fraternity houses and present again the Music Series to their attention while the members of the Board would go back to the sororities.

Moved and seconded that the Union purchase ping-pong tables and a game room be established on the 7th floor, carried.

Meeting adjourned 8:31.

Robert A. Ralston, Sec.
