

April 19, 1934

Roll call. George Heighway and Ward Biddle <sup>Byron</sup> were absent.

Minutes were read and accepted.

The treasurer reported receipts Nos. 2141-2163. Bills Nos. 402-406 were read. Moore moved that bills be accepted as read. Porter seconded and carried.

Hornbostel reported on installation banquet and stated that the plans were coming along O.K. He asked the desire of the Board in inviting the two deans of men to attend.

Moore reported that the final number of entries in the billiard tournament remained at eight. He continued that in saying the two cues which will be presented to the winner will cost approximately $11.00.

The president stated that plans for the Freshmen Frolic have been completed and that there is considerable interest among the freshman class. He stated that there has been $300.00 worth of tickets distributed and for each 15 tickets that any one individual sells he will receive a free ticket. Fletchall stated that it would be necessary to maintain men at the polls Wednesday, April 25th when these tickets are to be voted for the Freshman Princess. The following men agreed to come at the indicated time

8:00-9:00 Huestis	1:00-2:00 Moore and Fineberg
9:00-10:00 Porter and Harris	2:00-4:00 Smith, Hornbostel & Byron
10:00-11:00 Ralston	4:00-5:00 Stevens
11:00-12:00 Siebenthal

Meeting adjourned at 7:31 P.M.

Robert A. Ralston
Robert A. Ralston, Sec'y