

May 3, 1935

Roll Call: Feltus was absent.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Receipts Nos 3397-3421 and Bills Nos 859-863 were read. Moved and seconded that they be accepted as read. Carried.

Dir. Biddle announced a profit of $41 on the Freshman Mardi Gras April 27th. He also read the 10 month's financial report. The Union is about $5100 ahead of its budget for the year.

Huffman moved that we postpone the three-rail billiard tournament until next year because of lack of interest and proximity to final exams. Harrell seconded. Carried.

Vercuski moved that we defer the proposed billiard tournament, between Prof. Geo. Venable and Dean C. E. Edmondson, indefinitely. Keck seconded. Carried.

Vercuski amended his motion " for a committee of two to investigate as to what the faculty club plans to do concerning the proposed match and to act immediately." Seconded. Carried. St. Johns, Hanna, and Keck were appointed on this committee..

It was announced that the bust of Gov. McNutt would be placed in the niche between the two large doors leading into Alumni Hall as a part of the coming commencement exercises. This project is to be sponsored by the Union.

Fineburg announced the Union booklet committee of Smithburn, Chairman, Briggs, Fox, Emmons, and Biddle. The constitution committee will consist of Vercuski, Huffman, and Harrell as new men.

Heighway stressed the fact that the Union should be made the Board of Directors of the men students and not a competing organization with Blue Key and Sphinx Club. It should be the purpose of the Board to carry on all the activities of the student body.

Cogshall stressed the importance of forgetting factionalism and be truly representative of the men students of Indiana. Also he stressed the importance of every man being present at every meeting.

Meeting adjourned 9:10 pm.
