

play for the Union-AWS dance Feb. 14th. Harrell and Keck were appointed in charge of the special ticket sales for this dance.

Fixler moved that the Stephan Foster quartet which are now available be secured whenever possible under the auspices of the Union. Seconded and carried.

Briggs moved that the bridge tournament discussion be tabled. Seconded and carried.

Fineburg announced that the Board would meet as a committee as a whole in Pres. Bryan's office Monday, Feb. 10th at 4 pm.

Meeting adjourned 8:45 pm.

(Signed)

Robert C. Keck

Approved: Milton J. Fineburg
President of the Board.

Secretary of the Board

February 13, 1936

Roll Call: Stout, Walker, Cogshall, Heighway, and Feltus were absent.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Fineburg reported a very successful visit with Dr. Bryan on the proposed addition over the veranda on the north side of the Union Building. He announced that the all men's show was not allowed by the Board of Dramatic Productions. The Board will be given permission, if it so desires, to put on a skit in the proposed "I U Revue".

Billiard committee reported that the team was being picked to represent Indiana in national competition and that the team was practicing daily.

Harrell announced that he had appointed Tom Getz head yell-leader. The Board approved the appointment unanimously.

Smithburn announced that the Union Booklet would be out in three weeks.

Harrell submitted the dance report. Tickets are selling fairly well. Fineburg submitted the results of the straw vote referendum.

Merit 87

Combined 239

Gen. Election 247

Briggs reported that 300 were present at the last open-forum.

Vercuski moved that the Board accept the referendum conducted by the constitution committee. Seconded and carried.

Vercuski moved that the Union adopt a combined merit and election system in the new proposed constitution. Seconded and carried.

Robinson moved that as the Board vote on any item in the Constitution, such vote be unanimous when a majority of the Board votes as such. Seconded and carried.

Meeting adjourned 11:05 pm.

(Signed)

Robert C. Keck

Approved:

Milton J. Finckel
President of the Board

Secretary of the Board

February 18, 1936

Roll Call: Walker, Huffman, Fixler, Robinson, Heighway, and Feltus were absent.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Discussion of the new proposed constitution was continued. The Constitution will be published in the Indiana Daily Student Friday morning, Feb. 21, 1936.

By unanimous approval of the Board the discussion of the Constitution will be omitted from the minutes of the Board.

Meeting adjourned 10:50 pm.

(Signed)

Robert C. Keck

Secretary of the Board

Approved:

Milton J. Finckel
President of the Board

February 20, 1936

Roll Call: Walker, Huffman, Heighway, and Feltus were absent.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Dean Edmondson was present. He suggested that the Union extend an invitation to the women to see the billiard tournaments. He is willing to play any professor the Board can secure in defense of his title.