

February 27, 1936

Union Mass Meeting.

Minutes of the last mass meeting were read and approved.

President Fineburg presiding. 258 present.

Fineburg: Following the last mass meeting, last Monday, the Board of Directors met and considered all objections and proposals made. All recommendations were discussed fully. Many of these changes were incorporated as a part of the Constitution.

The major changes are in

Art. 7. Sec. 7.

Art. 5. Sec. 3. Sub Sec c.

Other minor changes have been made in punctuation.

The chair will recognize discussion from the floor. Vercuski will limit the discussion to five minutes.

Campbell: I move that the Indiana Union adopt the new Constitution.

Rosenfeld: I second.

The ayes have it. Carried.

Meeting adjourned 4:30 pm.

(Signed)

Robert C. Keck

Secretary of the Board

Approved: Milton J. Fineburg
President of the Board.

February 24, 1936

Roll Call: Stout, Briggs, Smithburn, Harrell, Walker, Huffman, Fox, Highway, and Feltus were absent.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Discussion on the Constitution was continued. The document was passed upon as a whole.

The entire Constitution was revised with many proposed changes being recorded. Also minor changes were made in punctuation and capitalization.

(Actual discussion is not incorporated in minutes as per resolution to that effect February 18th.)*

Meeting adjourned 11:59 pm.

(Signed)

Robert C. Keck

Secretary of the Board

Approved: Milton J. Fineburg
President of the Board.

*See page 93.