Roll Call: Kenderdine and Anderson were absent.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Cheer Leaders Curry and Swanson were present and presented the problem concerning the personnel of the Cheer Leaders squad. Fox moved that Article 1 of the Cheer Leaders Constitution be amended as follows:

"The cheer leading squad shall be composed of one senior yell leader, two junior yell leaders, and four additional yell leaders to be selected from either the freshmen or sophomore classes. There shall also be two alternates to be selected from either of the last two classes" Motion was seconded and carried.

Fleming read suggestions for next years "hospitality banquet". Ham requested that they be placed in the permanent files for future use.

Greiger presented the plans for the operation of the Grid-Graph for the Minnesota game, October 9.

Church reported that the idea of having the Military Department co-operate with the Board in the sponsorship of the Card-Cheering would have to be dropped. It was decided to operate the section as in the past.

Herdrich reported on the progress made in the organization of the Flying Club.

Masters gave the report on the Union Reunion banquet which is to be held November 19.

Fleming and Robinson were absent.

Minutes of last meeting were read and approved.

The program for the Pow-wow was discussed by the Board. It was suggested that the arrangements for this affair be started earlier in the future.

Church reported that Card-cheering for this year would have to be dropped because no time would be available for the presentation in either the Illinois or Purdue games. This was due to the fact that both of these universities were bringing their bands to the games.

Greiger reported on the successful Grid-Graph presentations of the Minnesota game. Masters moved that a ten cent charge be levied for admission to all future presentations, the proceeds of which shall go to the Indiana University Band. Seconded and carried.

Herdrich, Lawrence, and Church reported on the Flying, Camera, and Chess Clubs respectively.

Meeting adjourned at 8:00.
