

October 21, 1937

Roll Call: Kenderdine and Masters were absent.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Dir. Patrick read the financial report on the Pow-Wow. It was suggested that the admission price might be raised to possibly fifty-five or sixty cents next year in order to cover the loss.

Dir. Patrick reported on the tentative plans for the Union Reunion Banquet.

Herdrich and Robinson led discussion concerning legal difficulties incurred with the newly formed Flying Club. The point under consideration was the liability of the Union for any accident that might occur while a student was flying under the auspices of the Union.

Discussion ensued as to the advisability of the Union sponsoring a Triangular Billiard Match. Church moved that the Board sponsor the affair. Seconded and carried.

Meeting adjourned at 8:00.

October 28, 1937

Roll Call: Kenderdine and Anderson were absent.

Minutes of last meeting were read and approved.

Masters presented a tentative program for the Union Reunion Banquet. Fox suggested that the choice of a toastmaster for that affair be left to the committee in charge.

After considerable discussion concerning the Flying Club, Ham appointed Robinson, Fox, and Herdrich to make a definite report at the next meeting.

Greiger reported that the Grid-Graph will operate during the Nebraska game October 30.

Ham read a letter from the Collegiate Chamber of Commerce, requesting points under the Merit plan for Senior class elections. It was decided to postpone action on this matter.

Dir. Patrick announced that the American National Association of College Unions would hold a Convention at Purdue December 3, 4, and 5.

Meeting adjourned at 8:00.
