Dec 1, 1938

Roll Call--Members Absent: Cogshall, Robinson

Minutes of last meeting were read and approved.

On the Camera Club Anderson reported that at the meeting Wednesday, December 7, a speaker from Eastman Camera Company will appear.

Visher, Town Hall, reported that there would be no program this Sunday, but on Dec. 11 Dean Gavit will preside. There will be a discussion of the limitation of activities on the campus.

Fleming instructed Mauck to compile a Union Calendar for Union events next year.

Mauck reported on the Flying Club. He indicated that the interest of this organization has been on the down-grade.

A report was heard from Smith on the Camp Councillers Club.

A discussion was held on the Christman party to be held Dec. 10. Fleming encouraged every board member to attend.

Sturgeon reported on the Purdue-Indiana chess match which was won by the latter 4-1. A gallery of approximately 60 attended the match.

Favorable reports were heard from Richardson on the guide service and from Boughman on the dance committee, the latter announcing that Ed. Johnson will play for the Union A.W.S. dance Dec. 9.

Thomas reported on the ticket sale for the Frankis Master's dance.

Fleming read a telegram from Patrick and Lawrence.

Fleming asked for a report on the mass meeting and encouraged Sturgeon to try to take care of this before Christmas.

Richardson and Thomas were appointed to be responsible for signs to be distributed on the campus. Anderson suggested that the Board recommend to the Athletic Board that an "I" sweater and a numeral sweater be awarded to Swanson and Peterson, Senior and Junior cheerleader, respectively. Boughman moved that the Board adopt the recommendation; Anderson seconded; motion carried.

Discussion was held in regard to the distribution of the weekly Union program at the Record Hour Programs each Friday. Visher and Sturgeon were instructed to investigate the expense of such a project.

The secretary indicated that a letter of thanks had been sent to Mr. Messick, toastmaster at the football Pow-wow.

Roll Call: Sturgeon, Olofson, Cogshall were absent.

Minutes of last meeting were read and approved.

Committee reports.

Richardson reported on guide service.

Mauck reported on Flying Club; reported that officers were elected at last meeting on Dec. 6. Marshall Hassenmiller was named Pres. The group of 22 discussed having their pictures in the 1938 Arbutus and investigated the location of last year's funds.

Visher reported on the Forum; stated that Max Lerner, editor of the Nation would be the next speaker to appear, the date being Jan. 15, '39. He reported that on Dec. 11 Dean Gavit will act as Chairman of the Town Hall program in which the topic "Is the Campus Over Organized" will be discussed. Visher also reported that plans are being made for a weekly campus calendar of Union activities which will be distributed each Monday morning when final plans are made.

The Camp Councillers Club was reported on by Smith who reports that only one attended the last meeting, and Fleming suggested that perhaps the Club might have to be dropped unless something is done to improve it in the near future. Patrick stated that the more active period for this club should be in the spring and that meetings should be held no more than once a month in which time it will receive adequate publicity.

Reports were heard from Thomas, Anderson, and Boughman on signs in the Administrative Buildings, Camera Club, and Dance Club, respectively. Richardson offered suggestions for novel names to be given to the Union Dances.

Mauck moved that the Board go on record to congratulate Patrick for his selection as President of the American Association of Collegiate Unions. Lawrence seconded: motion carried.

A report was heard from Lawrence in regard to the sequence of events witnessed by him and Patrick at the recent convention at Minneapolis. A more detailed report will be discussed by the Board as a whole next week.
