

May 4, 1939

Roll Call: Robinson absent.

The minutes of the previous meeting were not read, because this was the first meeting of the new board (39-40).

Patrick gave some details about the work of the board.

Much discussion was held concerning the selection of another Union Board work room, since the present room is being considered for food department office. Room 202 was chosen as the most probable one, however the Foundation office was also considered with the hope that it could be removed to the Administration Building.

Prof. Cogshall suggested changing the meeting night from Thursday to Tuesday night. Boughman moved that meeting nights for the ensuing year be on Tuesday night, seconded by Hutton and passed.

Mauck outlined the program for the next school year:

Publications ----	Thomas, chairman; Stoner, assistant
Pep Sessions ----	Hiller, chairman; Arnold, assistant
Social -----	Boughman, chairman
Publicity -----	Richardson, chairman
Personnel -----	Jay, chairman
Banquets -----	Funk, chairman
Guide and Ushering -	Tipmore
Record Hour -----	Arnold, chairman
Grid Graph -----	Stoner, chairman
Town Hall and Open Forum --	Hutton, chairman

The chairmanships of four clubs will be appointed later. Those are Flying Club, Chess, Hiking, and Camera.

Boughman moved meeting adjourn; seconded by Thomas. Time of adjournment was 10:15 P.M.

Signed:

Robert H. Weir
Sec'y of the Board.
