December 10, 1940

Menke, Miller, Nolan absent.

Chiddister, reporting on methods to improve the prestige of the personnel committee, suggested:

- (1) Having the Personnel Committee at Induction Banquet.
- (2) Picture of each Personnel Committee in Room 202.
- (3) Holding their meetings in Board Meeting Room.

The committee also suggests lapel buttons for service workers having above a minimum number of hours.

Jay suggested a course in leadership for eligible service workers.

Funk pointed out the lack of cooperation in distribution of banquet tickets. He suggested that the Board be represented at an inter-fraternity council meeting to discuss the problems.

The Board discussed attendance at Union functions, and closer cooperation with A.W.S.

Because of duplication with service organizations, the Board decided to give the usual amount expended on the Christmas party to a needy student fund. Gates, Batton, Jay and Kane were appointed to investigate such a fund.

Funk moved, Batton seconded for adjournment.. Adjournment at 8:00
