Visher reported that all ushers must have a personal interview with Mr. Krause before Tues., Oct. 14.

Anderson reported that the invitations for the Union board reunion banquet are being made up.

Lucas suggested that an announcement be put in the Daily Student about freshmen signing up to do merit service work.

There are 40 students invited to the first coffee hour scheduled for Wed., Oct. 8.

The joint meeting with AWS has been postponed until Friday, Oct. 18, at 5:30.

The Powwow banquet to be held Friday has been planned with a full list of speakers and program completed.

The federal defense tax went into effect Oct. 1, and all union functions are to be taxed 10%.

Willie Hoppe will be featured by the billiard room this year on Nov. 12. Since that is the regularly scheduled quarterback hour, the quarterback hour will be held one week later. This will not conflict with the football schedule, because there is no football game that weekend. The billiard tables will be set up in Alumni Hall.

Bartley moved, Case seconded for adjournment.

Anderson reported that lists of members and invitations will be sent to all former board presidents for the reunion banquet. It was suggested that the theme of this and future banquets be the honoring as special guests of a certain class, perhaps the twenty-fifth reunion. President Wells, Mr. Biddle, Dr. Bryan, Mr. Patrick, President Gates, and members of the class of 1916 are the probable speakers.

Bridges passed out the schedules for the board members' office hours.

Visher reported that all ushers had been interviewed by Mr. Krause, and the full list of ushers has been chosen. There will be ushering practice Thurs, Oct. 16, with Andy Best helping.

Thurs. at 7:30 there will be a panel of speakers who will speak to 40 specially invited unorganized freshmen as a part of the Union orientation program. The following men will speak:

Scholarship...John Visher
Activities....Karl Rahdert
Athletics ....Tommy Deckard
Social life...Phil Cooper

It was rumored that the ISA is going to transfer its social program to the YMCA in order to concentrate on freshman orientation. The YMCA might try to take over part of the Union social program, and means of preventing this were discussed. Visher suggested that the Union board should make more overtures to unorganized men, not because the board has been running a program for a select group and ignoring the unorganized man, but because with the present program it is not always possible for the unorganized man to take full advantage of it. It was suggested that in order to allay such suspicions, the board publicize its intent to carry on a well rounded program designed for everyone on the campus.

Visher read an article written for the newspaper setting forth the board's stand on the question. Case moved and Rieke seconded for an endorsement of the article and asked the Daily Student to print it. Motion carried.

Sandy Muir and Winston were admitted to the meeting.

Case reported that he is working on a handbook of the duties of the individual board members.

Eason reported that only seven guides showed up Saturday out of the
