

night dances and let other organizations give dances then. We could give only six or seven good dances during the year, and we could pick out the choice spots when the social calendar is made up.

The discussion continued but the board seemed to feel that it is a hopeless task to try to get crowds to attend a dance every weekend. However, the Union-AWS dance committee should not be dissolved, but should spend its time working on a very special dance only a few times a year.

Moreover, the board would have to find something to take over the vacancy in its social program if it does abandon the Friday night dances. Further decision will be made in the future.

Committee reports:

Anderson reported that the fall sports banquet has been tentatively scheduled for the first Monday after the Purdue game. (Nov. 24)

Beck has arranged for mimeographed blanks with a list of composers and classical music for requests for the record hour.

Visher asked all board members to try to get as many freshmen as possible to attend the first Open Forum on Oct. 30.

Case reported that the handbook of union activities is now ready to be printed.

Eason suggested that because of the lack of space in the Union building a room be taken in another building on the campus to be used for a dark room for the Camera Club.

Ricke announced that there will be a Quarterback hour in the men's gym Wed., Oct. 29, with pictures of the Wisconsin game. There will be a table tennis exhibition after the pictures.

Lucas reported a loss of $5.80 on the Peasant's pantry. There is plenty of publicity out on the Masquerade dance Oct. 31, and there should be no reason for a financial loss.

On Nov. 14, there will be dancing to the records in the Commons with bridge and fountain service.

Bartley is going to arrange to have the Union's own list drawn up for distribution of campus calendars.

No further committee reports.

Fred Case read the recommendation that the board of Aeons had made regarding student government as set up by the present functioning committee. A discussion followed as to the advisability of the Union Board's making a similar recommendation.

Eason: There would be student interest in student government if it were given a fair trial.

Bartley: On the petition that started the whole thing signatures were so slow in coming that the men behind it had to practically beg the students to sign it.

Case: The union board is in a different position from that of the Board of Aeons since we are not directly a governing body. Therefore we should not get into the battle unnecessarily.

Visher: The board should pass a resolution saying that the Union Board is not a legislative body but directs the Indiana Union. We should say nothing about student government.

Lucas: I suggest that the board recommend that a student vote be taken on student government.

Bartley moved and Lucas seconded that the Union Board take no public stand on the question but keep the discussion in the minutes. Motion carried.

The national union board convention is to be held in Lincoln, Nebraska Dec. 5 and 6.
