

our cooperation with it, and stating that the board does not feel that restriction of coed hours on Friday nights is necessary.

Krueger moved and Moeller seconded the appointment of a committee to consider the reorganization of the union program to fit a three semester year. Motion carried.

The following committee was appointed: Visher, Lucas, Ricke, and Gates.

Mr. Patrick read a letter from the chess club asking the union to award the winner of their tournament a suitable prize. Lucas moved and Moeller seconded that the board buy the winner a champion medal at a price up to $5. Visher moved and Bridges seconded for an amendment to make the motion read "not in excess of $3" in place of "up to $5". Amendment carried, and motion carried.

Mr. Patrick read the financial report. Moeller moved and Bartley seconded acceptance of the report. Motion carried.

Bartley moved and Case seconded for adjournment at 9:05.

Roll call: Anderson, absent

Minutes read and Approved

Visher's motion that the roll call be read alphabetically was carried.

Gates' report for Anderson was that the winter sports banquet will probably be held on March 9.

Moeller reported that the Chicago game was not picked up by loud-speakers because the radio reception was bad.

It was suggested in connection with the hobby show that there be a two day exhibit on March 15 and 16; merit service workers will be commissioned to find exhibitors, and letters will be sent to the faculty asking those who have hobbies to consider showing them at the exhibit. Lucas moved and Bartley seconded for an official approval of the plans. Motion carried.

Bridges reported that the ho rs have been posted for January, and suggested that those workers having more than 100 hours could be listed alphabetically without the number of hours they have collected. This would not make those workers with a smaller number of hours think that their chances were not so good. Lucas moved and and Moeller seconded adoption of the suggestion. Motion carried.

There is to be a merit service worker in each organization house to make announcements of special interest to the Union program. Lucas moved and Ricke seconded that there be a separate calendar of events to be announced mailed to each worker. Motion lost.

Bartley moved and Bridges seconded that a specially marked copy of the campus calendar be sent out to each of the workers. Motion carried.

Visher reported that an outline of the etiquette book is ready, and that there will be discussions among groups of students to determine what campus etiquette shall be incorporated with the book.

The ushering corps is still short of men.

Discussion was held about using the board's merit service workers to help with clerical work in the administration's offices in connection with the war effort. The request was made at the Union desk by persons unknown, but the board felt that there should be no union hours given for such work. It was suggested that the board could lend the facilities of the building to help coordinate the university's work in securing its clerical helpers. No further action was taken.

Lucas reported that the dance committee had met and considered the following proposal: Chuck Smith's orchestra will play for Friday night dances on a 60-40 split; there will be four short dances from 8:00 till 10:00 and two long dances from 9:00 till 12:00; and that season tickets to the dances could sell for $2.50 plus $.25 tax. The board expressed approval of the plan and promised to try to sell the tickets.

Bartley reported that President Wells was in favor of erecting a plaque to Indiana's war dead. Dixie Heighway, alumni secretary, sat in on the meeting to give the views of the subcommittee of the administrative war council. There should be a temporary memorial set up now, to be replaced by a permanent one after the war is over. It was suggested that the bronze bulletin board by the elevator be used with a black velvet backdrop, and a temporary gold card with the inscription, "Pro patria", Latin for "For Country". The card would give the boy's name and class. Visher moved and Bartley seconded that Mr. Heighway's plan be carried out.

Mr. Patrick suggested that by a new sand casting process the plaque could be made permanent in stone.

President Gates appointed Anderson to select the bridge trophy for the Purdue bridge team, and Moeller to select the prize for the chess tournament.

It was suggested that there might be more interest in the hobby show if prizes were offered. Visher moved and Ricke seconded that ribbons be awarded to the first, second, and third place winners. Motion carried. Moeller was appointed to get the ribbons.

Ricke moved and Lucas seconded that the picture of the first

Roll call: all present
Minutes read and approved.

Plans for the joint carnival to be sponsored with Sigma Delta Chi were discussed. Two proposals were submitted for the board's approval: A carnival might be presented with campus organizations sponsoring booth; or a variety show with pledge classes presenting skits. Any plans would have to clear through the administration, however, so as to fit in with the war plans.

Bartley reported that he talked to Dixie Highway about the memorial plaque, and that plans are being made for the scroll with a black velvet backdrop. The lettering will be done on cards by a machine that will make the names uniform.

Lucas reported that the AWS wants to sponsor jointly with Union Board the bridge tournament. The tournament will be run on three different nights. The winners will compete in a national tournament by playing duplicate hands and mailing results. Lucas moved and Ricke seconded that the board sponsor the tournament jointly with AWS. Motion carried.

Case moved and Moeller seconded that it be recommended to the dance committee that it investigate the possibilities of selling season tickets for the remaining Union-AWS dances. Motion carried.

It was suggested that there should be definite dates when the Commons will be open for dancing. Lucas moved and Moeller seconded that the Commons be open for dancing on Friday and Saturday nights when there are no public dances in Alumni Hall, and on Wednesday night and Saturday afternoon. Motion carried. Bartley will have approximately 500 news sheets announcing this, and Case will make permanent posters that can be put up in the Commons giving times when it will be open for dancing. The times are to be: Saturday afternoon: 2:00 to 4:15; Friday
