Applications are now being received for the personnel committee.

Mr. Patrick reported that the war aims committee wants to sponsor with the Union Open Forums committee student discussions about our war aims and purposes. The next forum will be in Town Hall Sunday night with a panel composed of Professor Horack and John Stempel. Each board member was asked to find four or five persons to attend this forum.

Lucas reported that the first bridge tournament was run off on Friday, March 6, with seven tables. The final round will be held Friday, March 13. Entries will still be taken for the tournament and there will be an entry fee of 25¢ to defray expenses of prizes.

There will be a Union-AWS dance Friday, March 13, and out of the first 50 tickets sold, there will be five free ones.

Ricke, Gates, Bridges, Case, and Prof. Cosghall were appointed as the qualifications committee to make up the list of candidates eligible for selection to the board.

The date of the selection and election will be decided at the next board meeting.

Colonel Shoemaker of the military department suggested that the band play for a swing session in Alumni Hall some afternoon instead of in the Commons. Admission would be the buying of one defense stamp. The matter will be decided by the dance committee.

Visher moved and Bartley seconded for adjournment at 8:05.
