Roll Call: Baerncopf, Bridges and Prof. Cogshall absent.
Minutes read and approved.

MacGill conducted the meeting in the absence of Chairman Bridges.

Wolf reported that a new chairman for Coffee Hours would have to be appointed as of July 1, when he leaves school, since the hours will be continued throughout the summer semester. McKown was appointed to supervise Coffee Hours, pending the approval of Bridges.

MacGill announced that he too would not be in school during the second eight-week period. Blickman was tentatively appointed Social Chairman. MacGill said that a letter had been written to President Wells clarifying and defining the Union Board's position in regards to the yeoman's school.

Mr. Patrick announced a loss of $30.08 on the second summer dance. He also said that he had written Mr. Miller of the Library committee, asking him to look over the Union's facilities for the establishment of a reading shelf. He continued to say that Robert Gemmer had agreed to represent the Forum committee at the ISS convention Sept. 2-5.

McKown moved for adjournment. Blickman seconded. Meeting adjourned at 4:30 P.M.

Approved:

W. Lloyd Bridges
Summer Chairman
