Nov. 10, 1942

Roll Call: Dolaway and Wolf absent.

Minutes read and approved.

Swanson reported a pep session Wed., Nov. 11 followed by a showing of Quarterback Hour films in Alumni Hall. It was decided there should be two showings because of the victory over Minnesota.

Bridges said guide service was available after the Seahawk game.

Ricke reported all tickets in for the formal season opening.

McKown said 125 persons attended Record Hour, including yeomen and WAVES. He said favorite-composer questionnaires had been distributed.

Heath said the Quarterback Hour for the Purdue game would be Thanksgiving day. MacGill announced a free dance, sponsored solely by the Union, for Wednesday night.

MacGill reported the following figures on the Opening of the Formal Season: Net profit for dance: $171.40; Balance for season: $540.41.

Lucas urged Board members to keep their service workers active.

Bridges and Heath were appointed to meet with Dr. Bryan to select an appropriate quotation for over the Bryan room mantel.

Mr. Jordan suggested that MacGill and Gallmeyer get plans together for a reception Monday, Nov. 16 for 150 new navy trainees. He said the Board of Trustees and members of the State legislature would be at the reception following the Kansas State game.

Swanson moved for adjournment. Meeting adjourned.
