

Jan. 13, 1943.

Roll Call: Anderson and Heath absent.

Minutes read and approved.

McKown reported that the record machine had been repaired and that the first Record Hour of the semester was attended by about 80 persons. The committee would meet to plan future events, he said.

Cox said Town Hall met Sunday/ He added that the new semester usher problems were caused partially by losing men from last term. It was decided that ushers could report directly to the auditorium to apply for positions instead of at the Union Board office.

Lucas said the Senior Farewell Banquet was successful. The possibility of a mixer instead of a freshman welcome banquet was discussed.

MacGill outlines a modified social program for the second semester, not to include more than especially good dance. Mr. Jordan suggested that the co-op dining room be used as a place for coke dances over the week-end evenings. He also said the Navy was to have no more mid-week dances, leaving the orchestra free one hour each week. He further announced an offer from Raymond's band to pay all expenses for Union-A.W.S. dances and to take all profits up to $90 after which profits were to be split. This offer was to be presented in writing. The Board decided to leave the matter up to the dance committee.

They also agreed not to consider further Navy School receptions.

Ricke moved to approve a letter for Cheer Leader Vick Zubras. Gallmeyer seconded. Carried.

The Chicago-Indiana basketball game was to be broadcast in the Commons by relayed transcript. Other away-from-home dances were to be broadcast also.

It was decided to suspend Coffee Hours in favor of a series of receptions for prominent visitors to campus.

The Board agreed to reprint the explanatory booklet of the Union.

McKown moved that Bridge's vacancy on the Board be left open until spring. Ricke seconded. Carried.

Wolf was appointed to direct a man to keep the Navy bulletin board posted.

Wolf moved for adjournement.

Approved:

Submitted:

Robert A. MacGill

President of the Board.

Secretary of the Board.