

January 4, 1944.

Meeting called to order by McCarty.

All present.

Minutes read and approved.

Dr. Coggeshall inducted Pfc. William Beko to membership on the Board.

Turner moved that a president be elected and that, if a vacancy occurs, an election be held to fill the latter office. Howard 2nd. Carried.

Radigan moved that the person receiving the highest number of ballots be made president. Beko 2nd. Carrier.

Mendel McCarty was elected president of the Board. Congratulations, Oz, old boy.

Bill Turner was elected vice-president. You too, Tux.

Ray Howard reported that a town hell program is scheduled for Sunday, January 8, on the subject "Student Government."

Wiggins reported that the record committee is considering reorganization

McCarty reported that the New Years eve dance was attended by about 1500 people, a decent percentage of whom were stags, and that a Union-AWS dance will be held Saturday, January 9.

Mr. Rich suggested that Wiggins add Cribbage to his activities and said that he would secure equipment.

McCarty raised a discussion of activities in the dugout and Mr. Rich decided to investigate the situation.

Mr. Rich suggested that the broadcast of basketball games be amplified in the Commons on Saturdays.

Radigan moved that arrangements be made for broadcasting the Purdue game, Saturday, January 9. Howard 2nd. Carried.

Turner moved that the meeting be adjourned. Wiggins 2nd. Adjourned.

Approved:

Submitted:

President of the Board.

Dwight G. Wiggins
Secretary of the Board.