Radigan opened.
Minutes read and approved.

Davis reported on the activities of the Social Committee. Rich then clarified complimentary dance arrangements, discussing Lenox's band and stating the payment given to both local and out-of-town bands.

Radigan appointed Nolan chairman of the Personnel and Guide Service Committee. Meyer was named chairman of the Usher Committee and Willis was appointed to the Record Committee and the Publications Committee.

Radigan explained the Union Board hour arrangements and read the bill on the Indiana University Service Award. Rich then elaborated on the plan after which Dr. Cogshall commented on its merits. The Board, upon the motion of Nolan and the second of Meyer, passed the Award plan to be effective during the summer months, the last clause being suspended. Rich asked that no publicity concerning the Award plan be given out for the present.

Rich commented on the Billiard and Forum programs. The Board decided not to attempt these programs during the summer months.

Radigan brought up the suggestion that the Union resume its policy of actively participating in freshman orientation proceedings, passing out sample Freshman Handbooks for the examination of the members. Rich commented briefly on the Freshman Banquet and the campus soldier situation in the recent past. A Senior Farewell Banquet for those men graduation in August was then suggested. Willis was instructed to read over "Our Indiana" to detect obsolete passages. The financing of introductory bulletins and booklets was explained. Each member was instructed to take the two freshman handbooks home and make a comparison and choice. Radigan said that the Union Board could be expected to resume many of its old functions relative to freshman orientation.

Rich gave Nolan the Union convention schedule for the summer.

Nolan moved for adjournment. Davis 2nd. Carried.
