

July 5, 1944

Radigan opened.
Minutes read and approved.
Davis absent.

Nolan indicated that Mr. Biddle was unavailable for consultation concerning the Service Award banquet. The banquet planning will therefore be postponed until Mr. Biddle's return from a trip out of town, as will all publicity planning. The date for the banquet will be left to Rich's discretion.

The form of the Freshman Handbook is not to be changed, according to the committee report given by Radigan. Additions and corrections will be made, of course, and the proof will be submitted to the Board at a later date.

The Social Committee report was given by Radigan. There will be a Terrace Dance on July 15, 1944. The present Union budget does not provide for the bi-monthly Union-A.W.S. dances with an orchestra. However, future soldier membership subscriptions may alter this situation. More will be known about the budget before the next regularly scheduled Union-A.W.S. complimentary dance.

Meyer moved for adjournment. Nolan 2nd. Carried.
