Nolan reported that Mr. Biddle said that the banquet date most convenient for him would be tentatively Wednesday, July 19, 1944. Nolan suggested that the Award Banquet should be considered to be of sufficient importance to merit the attention of all concerned. Rich then suggested that it would be well to wait until tomorrow to set a definite date for the banquet so that consultation might be had with Mr. Biddle. Radigan stated that it would be best to leave the responsibility for setting the date in Rich's hands.

The Social Committee had had no meetings during the week, according to Davis.

As yet there is no information on the soldier subscriptions, Rich said, and therefore the budget question is not yet answered.

There will be a Union-A.W.S. record dance on the Terrace this Saturday for which Davis and Radigan will obtain records.

The Freshman Handbook is getting the final checking over stated Radigan. Rich said that the ok'd copy is beginning to come in from the departments and the various other sources.

Plans were discussed for the Freshman Banquet in the fall. Rich said that the new budget makes provisions for such an affair. Nolan moved to have the Freshman Banquet to include both the summer and fall freshman men. Davis 2nd. Carried.

Willis moved for adjournment. Davis 2nd. Carried.
