

September 19, 1944

Radigan opened.
Minutes read and approved.

Walt Zuhl was appointed personnel chairman. Frank Rabb was put in charge of the Record Hour, Billiards, and the Chess Club. Leon Kaminski was put in charge of the pep sessions, the Quarterback Hour, and the Gridgraph. Willis was made publicity chairman. Shuser was made social chairman with Leon Kaminski representing the chair at all social committee meetings.

There is to be a dance Saturday night with Max Greer's orchestra. Publicity is already out.

Lyman asked the Board to wear coats and ties at the next meeting so that a picture of the Board might be taken.

Willis presented the Homecoming election plan worked out by his committee. Meyer moved to accept. Shuser 2nd. Carried unanimously.

Lyman said that Union Board stationery would be purchased soon and asked the Board to check his list for the correct spelling of their names.

Zuhl and Willis were instructed to submit a list of potential faculty advisers at the next meeting.

Shuser moved to adjourn. Meyer 2nd. Carried.

Approved:

President of the Board

Submitted:

Russell A. Willis, Jr.

Secretary of the Board