

October 24, 1944

Radigan opened.

Minutes read and approved.

Shuser had no Social Committee report to give inasmuch as the committee will meet on Thursday of this week. Shuser will check on the Bob Chester records to be placed in the Gables and Commons juke boxes.

Still no key to 202.

Kaminski reported that there was no grid-graph last week due to complications with the News Bureau. There will be a Quarter-back Hour, however, as soon as the films are available.

Willis submitted the contract for the pages in the Arbutus. The Board looked at the Union Board pages in old issues of the Arbutus and voted to have two pages this year as usual.

Willis reported that Mr. Biddle has not yet replied to the request that he assume the duties of faculty adviser to the Board.

Rabb reported that nothings is yet definite on the chess game with Purdue.

Lyman said that he would check with Major Reed on letting the A.S.T.P. stay out until 1 o'clock on the night of the Formal Opening. It is to be a 1:30 night with dancing from 9 until 1 o'clock.

Kaminski moved to adjourn. Zuhl 2nd. Carried.

Approved:

Submitted:

President of the Board

Russell A. Willis, Jr.
Secretary of the Board