L. C. Smith opened
First meeting of semester

New members were inducted by Mr. A. B. Leible. Mr. Smith congratulated new members and explained the function of the Union Board, and accepting the responsibility of each member in furthering its work.

Mr. Jordan said a few words, pointing out the need for the new board to make the first step in the transition from a war-time to a peace-time Union. Meyer stressed the importance of getting more students interested in the Union, and Willis stated the necessity of getting more service workers to carry out the aforementioned objectives.

All new members were asked to submit their class schedules to Mr. Smith so that their free hours may be known in the office.

Mr. Smith then closed the meeting.
