

A letter was received from President Wells warning us about the morality of the Jawn Purdue pep session.

Virginia Dill moved that the meeting be adjourned. Hunter seconded. Motion carried.

Approved by:

President

Submitted by:

Secretary

December 11, 1945

Kyle opened the meeting at 7:00 p.m.

Hunter, Thompson and Jones were absent.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Committee Reports:

Social-- Kyle reporting: The committee has set Wednesday, December 12, at 5:00p.m. as the deadline for refunding money for the Formal Opening tickets.

The committee plans to investigate the possibility of having informal parties in the Commons on Friday nights after the Christmas vacation.

Pep Sessions-- Kyle reporting: The Quarterback Hour must be postponed until the films of the I.U.-Purdue game are available.

Chess-- Duncan reporting: The Chess Club is having a meeting Tuesday, Dec. 11. The committee has put out a lot of publicity on the Chess Club.

Town Hall-- Weber reporting: There will be a discussion Sunday, December 16; the subject has not yet been chosen.

Record-- Steckler reporting: There will be a Christmas Record Hour this Friday night. The plans are to have a program on December 20 if the requests warrant it.

Jones was appointed to investigate the possibility of having a band in the Commons three afternoons a week next semester.

Griggs is to check through the past minutes and report on the recommendations set down by previous Boards.

Griggs is to investigate the possibility of having the Fraternities and the Men's Residence Halls entertain needy children at Christmas parties before we leave for the vacation.

Murray is to schedule the important dates set down in the Union Constitution for the selection of members and for holding elections.

Steckler reports that Jim Wright is having a dinner for Branch Mc Cracken in an effort to persuade him to return to Indiana as Head Basket-ball Coach. Steckler asked how many of the Board members would be interested in attending such a banquet. Every member expressed his desire to attend.

Murray moved that the meeting be adjourned, Steckler seconded. Motion was carried.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, January 8, 1946

Approved by:

President

Submitted by:

Secretary