Kyle opened the meeting at 7:00 p.m.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Committee Reports:

Social--Jones reporting: The dance Saturday, January 19 realized a loss of $11.20. The Grille will be open February 8 for those unable to leave campus between semesters.

In the Union-A.W.S. social committee meeting last night it was pointed out that while other organization's dances succeed the Union A.W.S. events seem to fail. It seems that the dances are poorly attended by the Union Board members, and it was suggested that possibly the Board was not giving enough support to their dances.

The committee recommended that Jean Maney and Shelby Jones plan a program whereby a committee made up of housing unit representatives hold regular meetings and discuss the activities of the Union-A.W.S. social committee in an effort to promote more successful social events. A meeting of these representatives has been planned for Thursday, February 14, for the purpose of putting this plan into action in time for the dance February 22.

Dean Bates suggested that this committee have a substantial representation of the students who live "out in town". These students, Dean Bates pointed out, have less in the way of social activities than any of the other students and should be made to feel more particularly that they too are a part of the campus. Dean Bates further suggested that I.S.A. and other independent organizations be contacted in an effort to get the "out in town" students properly represented on the proposed planning committee.

The discussion on the report turned to the failure of the Union-A.W.S. dances, and as usual no solution was found. It was pointed out that it is not necessary to have dances every week, and it was suggested that we cut down on the number of dances sponsored.

Chess--Duncan reporting: Only five members attended the last meeting-- no business was transacted.

Records-- Steckler reporting: The Union Board will continue to sponsor the Record Hour next semester.

The next meeting of the Union Board will be held Tuesday, February 19, at which time the committee heads will be shifted. The members were asked to hand their preferences to President Kyle.

Steckler was appointed investigate the possibilities of opening the Auditorium to visitors, using the Union service workers as guides.

Hunter was appointed to set up a schedule of Union activities by the month for the purpose of keeping a record of the event-- attendance, etc..

Griggs, Duncan, and Jones were appointed to set a date for "Union Day" and to weigh the suggestions for the program which have been received.

Duncan was appointed to edit and have printed the Union Service Award brochure which will be passed out along with the first week's calendar at the Freshman enrollment.

Mr. Smith suggested that the Union Board office be open in the afternoons next semester.

Murray moved that the meeting be adjourned. Hunter seconded. The motion was carried.
